

Description of Services

The client agrees that True Romance Video.com will be the exclusive professional videographer retained for the purpose of capturing your event. Videographers will arrive to the ceremony location approximately 45 min prior to ceremony start time to set up. You or your wedding coordinator will approve any overtime charges. Your service will be captured using as much natural light as possible; additional portable lighting is used when permitted. We use wireless UHF microphones to capture your vows and give you professional audio. In some cases these microphones may receive interference from outside sources or the house system. You can expect delivery of your finished DVD approximately 30 days from your reception date.

Your edited DVD will run up to 60 minutes for the ceremony and up to 60 minutes for the reception, for up to 120 minutes total. It is assumed that the video demo, along with package description, will provide the general picture of a finished product. All Videos are delivered in their final version. Any additional editing will be billed separately.

Limitation of Liability

While every reasonable effort will be made to produce and deliver outstanding video of the wedding events, the videographer's entire liability to the client for any claim or loss arising from the videographer's performance is limited to a refund to the client's amount paid for services.

Payment Policy

A retainer in the amount of one-third of the total amount is due and payable to reserve your date. The remaining balance is due 30 days prior to ceremony.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellations must be made in writing 30 days prior to the ceremony date, in which case all funds excluding the retainer will be refunded within 60 days. If cancellation takes place within the 30 day of the event, understand that no funds will be returned and the total amount is still due.
